ABOUT ME

I'm a Head Chef with over 20 years' experience in hotel, restaurant and private kitchens, including the Saxon Hotel, Mount Rochelle and Steyn City.

I enjoy being hands-on, but I also know what it takes to keep a kitchen running well. I've led teams of up to 25, trained junior chefs and Sous Chefs, and managed food budgets, costing, staff rosters and kitchen reporting. I've worked across à la carte dining, private family meals, weddings, conferences and larger functions.

I take pride in good food, a well-organised kitchen and a team that works together. I like understanding what guests enjoy and keeping the standard consistent, whether I'm preparing a family dinner or working through a busy hotel service.
